

Pursuit: Linking Trade, Biology, and Pet Owner Decisions to the Risk of Vertebrate Invasions in the US

Time of Event:

Wednesday, February 8, 2017 - 09:00 to Friday, February 10, 2017 - 17:00

"Linking Trade, Biology, and Pet Owner Decisions to the Risk of Vertebrate Invasions in the US"

This is a closed meeting for a funded group of visiting scholars.

This pursuit will explore the risk of vertebrate invasions from the exotic pet trade in the US by synthesizing existing data on vertebrate species import volume with data on the US pet trade.
