Social Networks & the Environment Symposium

Time of Event:
Friday, September 19, 2014 - 14:30 to 16:30

Location:
Stamp Student Union
University of Maryland
College Park, MD

Students, faculty, staff, and representatives from the government sector and NGOs in the DC area are all welcome. Reception to follow event.

Featured speakers:

Isabella Alcañiz, PhD, [1] Assistant Professor of Comparative Politics, Department of Government and Politics, University of Maryland
Jennifer Hadden, PhD, [2] Assistant Professor of International Relations, Department of Government and Politics, University of Maryland
Lorien Jasny, PhD, [3] Postdoctoral Fellow, National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center (SESYNC)
Philip Leifeld, PhD, [4] Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Environmental Social Sciences, Eawag, Switzerland
Christine Prell, PhD, [5] Assistant Professor of Sociology, University of Maryland
David Tindall, PhD, [6] Associate Professor of Sociology, University of British Columbia

Moderator:

Dana Fisher, PhD, [7] Professor of Sociology and the Director of the Program for Society and the Environment, University of Maryland

Space is limited. Please click here to RSVP. [8]

Presented by the Program for Society and the Environment and co-sponsored by the National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center (SESYNC), University of Maryland Graduate School, University of Maryland College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, and University of Maryland Department of Sociology.

Event Attendance:
Open to the Public