Themes

Glossary Definition:

Research Themes are general research topics that may include a variety of related research questions, whereas Research Pursuits are individual research projects under a given theme. The “portfolio” of Pursuits that SESYNC funds under a Theme together help address major socio-environmental research questions. SESYNC leadership actively facilitates interactions among participants within different Pursuits under a given theme in order to promote comprehensive research on a topic.

Source URL: https://www.sesync.org/node/75